Title XXXVII. Insurance (Refs & Annos)

→ Chapter 402-C. Insurers Rehabilitation and Liquidation (Refs & Annos)

402-C:1 Title, Construction and Purpose.

I. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the "Insurers Rehabilitation and Liquidation Act."

II. CONSTRUCTION: NO LIMITATION OF POWERS. This chapter shall not be interpreted to limit the powers granted the commissioner by other provisions of the law.

III. LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose stated in paragraph IV.

IV. PURPOSE. The purpose of this chapter is the protection of the interests of insureds, creditors, and the public generally, with minimum interference with the normal prerogatives of proprietors, through:

- (a) Early detection of any potentially dangerous condition in an insurer, and prompt application of appropriate corrective measures, neither unduly harsh nor subject to the kind of publicity that would needlessly damage or destroy the insurer;
- (b) Improved methods for rehabilitating insurers, by enlisting the advice and management expertise of the insurance industry;
- (c) Enhanced efficiency and economy of liquidation, through clarification and specification of the law, to minimize legal uncertainty and litigation;
- (d) Equitable apportionment of any unavoidable loss;
- (e) Lessening the problems of interstate rehabilitation and liquidation by facilitating cooperation between states in the liquidation process, and by extension of the scope of personal jurisdiction over debtors of the insurer outside this state; and
- (f) Regulation of the insurance business by the impact of the law relating to delinquency procedures and substantive rules on the entire insurance business.

402-C:2 Persons Covered.

The proceedings authorized by this chapter may be applied to:

I. All insurers who are doing, or have done, an insurance business in this state, and against whom claims arising from that business may exist now or in the future;

II. All insurers who purport to do an insurance business in this state;

III. All insurers who have insureds resident in this state;

IV. All other persons organized or in the process of organizing with the intent to do an insurance business in this state; and

V. All nonprofit health service corporations as defined in RSA 420-A and all fraternal benefit and mutual benefit societies as defined in RSA 418.

- III. "Insurer" means any person who is doing, has done, purports to do or is licensed to do an insurance business and is or has been subject to the authority of, or to liquidation, rehabilitation, reorganization or conservation by, a commissioner. For purposes of this chapter, all other persons included under this section shall be deemed to be insurers.

- IX. "Reciprocal state" means any state other than this state in which in substance and effect RSA 402-C:21, I, RSA 402-C:54, I and II and RSA 402-C:55, 57, and 60 are in force, and in which provisions are in force requiring that the commissioner be the receiver of a delinquent insurer, and in which some provision exists for the avoidance of fraudulent conveyances and preferential transfers.
- X. "General assets" means all property, real, personal or otherwise, not specifically mortgaged, pledged, deposited or otherwise encumbered for the security or benefit of specified persons or limited classes of persons, and as to specifically encumbered property the term includes all such property or its proceeds in excess of the amount necessary to discharge the sums secured thereby. #### II. ACTIONS BY JUDGMENT CREDITORS.

(a) The judgment creditors of 3 or more unrelated judgments may commence proceedings under the conditions and in the manner prescribed in this section, by serving notice upon the commissioner and the insurer of intention to file a petition for liquidation under RSA 402-C:20 or 53. Each of the judgments must:

(1) Have been rendered against the insurer by a court in this state having jurisdiction over the subject matter and the insurer;

(2) Have been entered more than 60 days before the service of notice;

The commissioner shall be served and joined in the action.

III. EXCLUSIVENESS OF PROCEEDINGS. No court of this state shall have jurisdiction to entertain, hear or determine any complaint praying for the dissolution, liquidation, rehabilitation, sequestration, conservation or receivership of any insurer, or praying for an injunction or restraining order or other relief preliminary to, incidental to or relating to such proceedings other than in accordance with this chapter.

IV. CHANGE OF VENUE. Venue for proceedings arising under this chapter shall be laid initially as specified in the sections providing for such proceedings. All other actions and proceedings against the receiver shall be commenced and tried in the county where the delinquency proceedings are pending. At any time upon motion of any party, venue may be changed by order of the court or the presiding judge thereof to any other superior court in this state, as the convenience of the parties and witnesses and the ends of justice may require. This paragraph relates only to venue and is not jurisdictional.

V. PERSONAL JURISDICTION, GROUNDS FOR. In addition to other grounds for jurisdiction provided by the laws of this state, a court of this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter has jurisdiction over a person served in an action brought by the receiver of a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state:

(e) If the person served is obligated to the insurer in any way whatsoever, in any action on or incident to the obligation.

VI. FORUM NON CONVENIENS. If the court on motion of any party finds that any action commenced under paragraph V should as a matter of substantial justice be tried in a forum outside this state, the court may enter an order to stay further proceedings on the action in this state.

402-C:5 Injunctions and Orders.

I. INJUNCTIONS IN THIS STATE. Any receiver appointed in a proceeding under this chapter may at any time apply for and any court of general jurisdiction in this state may grant, such restraining orders, temporary and permanent injunctions, and other orders as are deemed necessary and proper to prevent:

II. INJUNCTIONS ELSEWHERE. The receiver may apply to any court outside of this state for the relief described in paragraph I.

402-C:6 Costs and Expenses of Litigation.

In any proceeding under this chapter, the court may award such costs and other expenses of litigation as justice requires, without regard to the limitations otherwise prescribed by law. If costs and expenses are taxed against the commissioner, they shall be paid pursuant to RSA 402-C:44, I.

402-C:7 Cooperation of Officers and Employees.

I. DUTY TO COOPERATE. Any officer, manager, trustee or general agent of any insurer and any other person with executive authority over or in charge of any segment of the insurer's affairs shall cooperate with the commissioner in any proceeding under this chapter or any investigation preliminary or incidental to the proceeding. "To cooperate" includes, but is not limited to the following:

IV. SANCTION. Any person included within RSA 402-C:7, I who fails to cooperate with the commissioner, or any person who obstructs or interferes with the commissioner in the conduct of any delinquency proceeding or any investigation preliminary or incidental thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if a natural person, or guilty of a felony if any other person.

402-C:8 Bonds.

In any proceeding under this chapter the commissioner and his deputies shall be responsible on their official bonds for the faithful performance of their duties. 402-C:10 Delinquency Proceedings.

I. Every proceeding commenced before June 23, 1969, is deemed to have commenced under this chapter for the purpose of conducting the proceeding thereafter, except that in the discretion of the commissioner the proceeding may be continued, in whole or in part, as it would have been continued had this chapter not been enacted.

- (d) Have any of its assets returned to the control of its shareholders or private management.

Summary Proceedings (Refs & Annos)

402-C:11 Commissioner's Summary Orders.

I. SUMMARY ORDER AFTER HEARING. Whenever the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe, and determines after a hearing held as prescribed in paragraph III, that any insurer has committed or engaged in, or is committing or engaging in or is about to commit or engage in any act, practice or transaction that would subject it to formal delinquency proceedings under this chapter, he may make and serve upon the insurer and any other persons involved, such orders other than seizure orders under RSA 402-C:12 and 13 as are reasonably necessary to correct, eliminate or remedy such conduct, condition or ground. If the order is for a restoration of or addition to capital, it may be carried out as provided in RSA 403.

II. SUMMARY ORDER BEFORE HEARING. If the conditions of paragraph I are satisfied, and if it appears to the commissioner that irreparable harm to the property or business of the insurer or to the interest of its policyholders, creditors or the public may occur unless he issues with immediate effect the orders described in paragraph I he may make and serve such orders without notice and before hearing, simultaneously serving upon the insurer notice of hearing under paragraph III.

III. SERVICE, NOTICE, HEARING. The notice of hearing under paragraphs I or II and the summary order issued under paragraphs I or II shall be reasonably calculated to fairly and reasonably notify the recipient of the time and place of hearing, and the conduct, condition or ground upon which the commissioner would base his order; the notice of hearing under paragraph II shall state the time and place of hearing. Unless mutually agreed between the commissioner and the insurer, the hearing shall occur not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days after notice is served and shall be either in Concord or in some other place convenient to the parties to be designated by the commissioner.

IV. JUDICIAL RELIEF. If the commissioner issues a summary order before hearing under paragraph II, the insurer may at any time waive the commissioner's hearing and apply for immediate judicial relief by means of any remedy afforded by law without first exhausting administrative remedies. Subsequent to a hearing the insurer or any person whose interests are substantially affected shall be entitled to judicial review of any order issued by the commissioner.

V. SANCTION. If any person has violated any order issued under this section which as to him was then still in effect, he shall be liable to forfeit a sum not to exceed $10,000. The penalty shall be imposed and collected in an action brought by the attorney general and shall be paid into the state treasury.

VI. ENFORCEMENT BY INJUNCTION. The commissioner may apply for and any superior court may grant, such restraining orders, temporary and permanent injunctions and other orders as are deemed necessary to enforce a summary order.

402-C:12 Court's Seizure Order.

I. ISSUANCE. Upon the filing by the commissioner in any superior court in this state of a verified petition alleging any ground that would justify a court order for a formal delinquency proceeding against an insurer under this chapter and that the interests of policyholders, creditors or the public will be endangered by delay, and setting out the order deemed necessary by the commissioner, the court shall issue forthwith, ex parte and without a hearing, the requested order which may a) direct the commissioner to take possession and control of all or a part of the property, books, accounts, documents and other records of an insurer and of the premises occupied by it for the transaction of its business, and b) until further order of the court, enjoin the insurer and its officers, managers, agents, and employees from disposition of its property and from transaction of its business except with the written consent of the commissioner.

II. DURATION. The court shall specify in the order what its duration shall be, which shall be such time as the court deems necessary for the commissioner to ascertain the condition of the insurer. On motion of either party or on its own motion, the court may hold such hearings as it deems desirable after such notice as it deems appropriate, and may extend, shorten or modify the terms of the seizure order. The court shall vacate the seizure order if the commissioner fails to commence a formal proceeding under this chapter after having had a reasonable opportunity to do so. The issuance of an order of the court pursuant to a formal proceeding under this chapter vacates the seizure order.

III. ANTICIPATORY BREACH. Entry of a seizure order under this section shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contract of the insurer.

402-C:13 Commissioner's Seizure Order.

I. ISSUANCE. If it appears to the commissioner that the interests of creditors, policyholders or the public will be endangered by the delay incident to asking for a court seizure order, then on any ground that would justify a court seizure order under RSA 402-C:12 without notice and without applying to the court, he may issue a seizure order which must contain a verified statement of the grounds of his action. As directed by the seizure order, the commissioner's representatives shall forthwith take possession and control of all or part of the property, books, accounts, documents and other records of the insurer, and of the premises occupied by the insurer for the transaction of its business. The commissioner shall retain possession and control until the order is vacated or is replaced by an order of the court pursuant to a proceeding commenced under paragraph II or a formal proceeding under this chapter.

II. JUDICIAL REVIEW. At any time after seizure under paragraph I, the insurer may apply to the superior court for Merrimack county or for the county in which the insurer's principal office is located. The court shall thereupon order the commissioner to appear forthwith and shall proceed thereafter as if the order were a court seizure order issued under RSA 402-C:12.

III. DUTY TO ASSIST COMMISSIONER. Every law enforcement officer shall assist the commissioner in making and enforcing any such seizure, and every sheriff's and police department shall furnish with such deputies, patrolmen or officers as are necessary to assist him.

IV. ANTICIPATORY BREACH. Entry of a seizure order under this section shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contract of the insurer.

402-C:14 Conduct of Hearings in Summary Proceedings.

I. CONFIDENTIALITY OF COMMISSIONER'S HEARINGS. The commissioner shall hold all hearings in summary proceedings privately unless the insurer requests a public hearing, in which case the hearing shall be public.

II. CONFIDENTIALITY OF COURT HEARINGS. The court may hold all hearings in summary proceedings and judicial reviews thereof privately in chambers, and shall do so on request of the insurer proceeded against.

III. RECORDS. In all summary proceedings and judicial reviews thereof, all records of the company, other documents, and all insurance department files and court records and papers, so far as they pertain to or are a part of the record of the summary proceedings, shall be and remain confidential except as is necessary to obtain compliance therewith, unless the court, after hearing arguments from the parties in chamber, shall order otherwise, or unless the insurer requests that the matter be made public. Until such court order, all papers, filed with the clerk of the court shall be held by him in a confidential file.

IV. PARTIES. If at any time it appears to the court that any person whose interest is or will be substantially affected by an order did not appear at the hearing and has not been served, the court may order that notice be given and the proceedings be adjourned to give him opportunity to appear on such terms as may be just.

V. SANCTIONS. Any person having possession or custody of and refusing to deliver any of the property, books, accounts, documents or other records of an insurer against which a seizure order or a summary order has been issued by the commissioner or by the court, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if a natural person, or guilty of a felony if any other person.

Formal Proceedings

402-C:15 Grounds for Rehabilitation.

The commissioner may apply by verified petition to the superior court for Merrimack county or for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located for an order directing him to rehabilitate a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state on any one or more of the following grounds:

I. Any ground on which he may apply for an order of liquidation under RSA 402-C:20 whenever he believes that the insurer may be successfully rehabilitated without substantial increase in the risk of loss to creditors of the insurer or to the public;

II. That the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that there has been embezzlement from the insurer, wrongful sequestration or diversion of the insurer's assets, forgery or fraud affecting the insurer or other illegal conduct in, by or with respect to the insurer, that if established would endanger assets in an amount threatening the solvency of the insurer;

III. That information coming into the commissioner's possession has disclosed substantial and not adequately explained discrepancies between the insurer's records and the most recent annual report or other official company reports;

IV. That the insurer has failed to remove any person who in fact has executive authority in the insurer, whether an officer, manager, general agent, employee or other person, if the person has been found by the commissioner after notice and hearing to be dishonest or untrustworthy in a way affecting the insurer's business;

V. That control of the insurer, whether by stock ownership or otherwise, and whether direct or indirect, is in one or more persons found by the commissioner after notice and hearing to be dishonest or untrustworthy;

VI. That any person who in fact has executive authority in the insurer, whether an officer, manager, general agent, employee or other person, has refused to be examined under oath by the commissioner concerning its affairs, whether in this state or elsewhere, and after reasonable notice of the fact the insurer has failed promptly and effectively to terminate the employment and status of the person and all his influence on management;

VII. That after demand by the commissioner the insurer has failed to submit promptly any of its own property, books, accounts, documents or other records, or those of any subsidiary or related company within the control of the insurer, or those of any person having executive authority in the insurer so far as they pertain to the insurer, to reasonable inspection or examination by the commissioner or his authorized representative. If the insurer is unable to submit the property, books, accounts, documents or other records of a person having executive authority in the insurer, it shall be excused from doing so if it promptly and effectively terminates the relationship of the person to the insurer;

VIII. That without first obtaining the written consent of the commissioner, the insurer has transferred, or attempted to transfer, substantially its entire property or business, or has entered into any transaction the effect of which is to merge, consolidate or reinsure substantially its entire property or business in or with the property or business of any other person;

IX. That the insurer or its property has been or is the subject of an application for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator or sequestrator or similar fiduciary of the insurer or its property otherwise than as authorized under this chapter, and that such appointment has been made or is imminent, and that such appointment might oust the courts of this state of jurisdiction or prejudice orderly delinquency proceedings under this chapter;

X. That within the previous year the insurer has wilfully violated its charter or articles of incorporation or its bylaws or any insurance law or regulation of any state, or of the federal government, or any valid order of the commissioner under RSA 402-C:11 or having become aware within the previous year of an unintentional violation has failed to take all reasonable steps to remedy the situation resulting from the violation and to prevent future violations;

XI. That the directors of the insurer are deadlocked in the management of the insurer's affairs and that the members or shareholders are unable to break the deadlock and that irreparable injury to the insurer, its creditors, its policyholders or the public is threatened by reason thereof;

XII. That the insurer has failed to pay for 60 days after due date any obligation to this state or any political subdivision thereof or any judgment entered in this state, except that such nonpayment shall not be a ground until 60 days after any good faith effort by the insurer to contest the obligation has been terminated, whether it is before the commissioner or in the courts;

XIII. That the insurer has failed to file its annual report or other report within the time allowed by law, and after written demand by the commissioner has failed to give an adequate explanation immediately;

XIV. That 2/3 of the board of directors, or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, or a majority of members or policyholders of an insurer subject to control by its members or policyholders, consent to rehabilitation under this chapter.

402-C:16 Rehabilitation Orders.

I. APPOINTMENT OF REHABILITATOR. An order to rehabilitate the business of a domestic insurer, or an alien insurer domiciled in this state, shall appoint the commissioner and his successors in office rehabilitator and shall direct the rehabilitator forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer them under the orders of the court. The filing or recording of the order with any register of deeds in the state imparts the same notice as a deed, bill of sale or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.

II. ANTICIPATORY BREACH. Entry of an order of rehabilitation shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contracts of the insurer.

III. Any order issued under this section shall require accountings to the court by the rehabilitator. Accountings shall be at such intervals as the court specifies in its order, but no less frequently than semi-annually.

402-C:17 Powers and Duties of the Rehabilitator.

I. SPECIAL DEPUTY COMMISSIONER. The commissioner as rehabilitator shall make every reasonable effort to employ an active or retired senior executive from a successful insurer to serve as special deputy commissioner to rehabilitate the insurer. The special deputy shall have all of the powers of the rehabilitator granted under this section. To obtain a suitable special deputy, the commissioner may consult with and obtain the assistance and advice of executives of insurers doing business in this state. Subject to court approval, the commissioner shall make such arrangements for compensation as are necessary to obtain a special deputy of proven ability. The special deputy shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner.

II. GENERAL POWER. Subject to court approval, the rehabilitator may take such action as he deems necessary or expedient to reform and revitalize the insurer. He shall have all the powers of the officers and managers, whose authority shall be suspended, except as they are redelegated by the rehabilitator. He shall have full power to direct and manage, to hire and discharge employees subject to any contract rights they may have and to deal with the property and business of the insurer.

III. ADVICE FROM EXPERTS. The rehabilitator may consult with and obtain formal or informal advice and aid of insurance experts.

IV. PURSUIT OF INSURER'S CLAIMS AGAINST INSIDERS. If the rehabilitator finds that there has been criminal or tortious conduct or breach of any contractual or fiduciary obligation detrimental to the insurer by any officer, manager, agent, broker, employee or other person, he may pursue all appropriate legal remedies on behalf of the insurer.

V. REORGANIZATION PLAN. The rehabilitator may prepare a plan for the reorganization, consolidation, conversion, reinsurance, merger or other transformation of the insurer. Upon application of the rehabilitator for approval of the plan, and after such notice and hearing as the court prescribes, the court may either approve or disapprove the plan proposed, or may modify it and approve it as modified. If it is approved, the rehabilitator shall carry out the plan. In the case of a life insurer, the plan proposed may include the imposition of liens upon the equities of policyholders of the company, if all rights of shareholders are first relinquished. A plan for a life insurer may also propose imposition of a moratorium upon loan and cash surrender rights under policies, for such period and to such an extent as are necessary.

VI. FRAUDULENT TRANSFERS. The rehabilitator shall have the power to avoid fraudulent transfers under RSA 402-C:30 and 31.

402-C:18 Actions by and Against Rehabilitator.

I. STAYS IN PENDING LITIGATION. On request of the rehabilitator, any court in this state before which any action or proceeding by or against an insurer is pending when a rehabilitation order against the insurer is entered shall stay the action or proceeding for such time as is necessary for the rehabilitator to obtain proper representation and prepare for further proceedings. The court that entered the rehabilitation order shall order the rehabilitator to take such action respecting the pending litigation as the court deems necessary in the interests of justice and for the protection of creditors, policyholders and the public. The rehabilitator shall immediately consider all litigation pending outside this state and shall petition the courts having jurisdiction over that litigation for stays whenever necessary to protect the estate of the insurer.

II. STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS BY INSURER. The time between the filing of a petition for rehabilitation against an insurer and denial of the petition or an order of rehabilitation shall not be considered to be a part of the time within which any action may be commenced by the insurer. Any action by the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced at least 60 days after the order of rehabilitation is entered.

III. STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS AGAINST INSURER. The time between the filing of a petition for rehabilitation against an insurer and the denial of the petition or an order of rehabilitation shall not be considered to be a part of the time within which any action may be commenced against the insurer. Any action against the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced for at least 60 days after the order of rehabilitation is entered or the petition is denied.

IV. Any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association covering life or health insurance or annuities shall have standing to appear in any court proceeding concerning the rehabilitation of a life or health insurer if such association is or may become liable to act as a result of the rehabilitator.

402-C:19 Termination of Rehabilitation.

I. TRANSFORMATION TO LIQUIDATION. Whenever he believes that further attempts to rehabilitate an insurer would substantially increase the risk of loss to creditors, policyholders, or the public, or would be futile, the rehabilitator may petition the court for an order of liquidation. A petition under this subsection shall have the same effect as a petition under RSA 402-C:20. The court shall permit the directors to defend against the petition and shall order payment from the estate of the insurer of such costs and other expenses of defense as justice requires.

II. ORDER TO RETURN TO COMPANY. The rehabilitator may at any time petition the court for an order terminating rehabilitation of an insurer. If the court finds that rehabilitation has been accomplished and that grounds for rehabilitation under RSA 402-C:15 no longer exist, it shall order that the insurer be restored to possession of its property and the control of its business. The court may also make that finding and issue that order at any time upon its own motion.

402-C:20 Grounds for Liquidation.

The commissioner may apply by verified petition to the superior court for Merrimack county or for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located for an order directing him to liquidate a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state on any one or more of the following grounds:

I. Any ground on which he may apply for an order of rehabilitation under RSA 402-C:15 whenever he believes that attempts to rehabilitate the insurer would substantially increase the risk of loss to its creditors, its policyholders or the public, or would be futile, or that rehabilitation would serve no useful purpose;

II. That the insurer is or is about to become insolvent;

III. That the insurer is engaging in a systematic practice of reaching settlements with and obtaining releases from policyholders or third party claimants and then unreasonably delaying payment of or failing to pay the agreed upon settlements;

IV. That the insurer is in such condition that the further transaction of business would be hazardous, financially or otherwise, to its policyholders, its creditors or the public;

V. That the insurer has not transacted the business of insurance during the previous 12 months or has transacted only a token insurance business during that period, although authorized to do so throughout that period, or that more than 12 months after incorporation it has failed to become authorized to do an insurance business;

VI. That within the previous 12 months the insurer has systematically attempted to compromise with its creditors on the ground that it is financially unable to pay its claims in full;

VII. That the insurer has commenced, or within the previous year has attempted to commence, voluntary liquidation otherwise than under the insurance laws of this state;

VIII. That the insurer has concealed records or assets from the commissioner or improperly removed them from the jurisdiction;

IX. That the insurer does not satisfy the requirements that would be applicable if it were seeking initial authorization to do an insurance business in this state, except for:

(a) Requirements that are intended to apply only at the time the initial authorization to do business is obtained, and not thereafter; and

(b) Requirements that are expressly made inapplicable by the laws establishing the requirements;

X. That the holders of 2/3 of the shares entitled to vote, or 2/3 of the members or policyholders entitled to vote in an insurer controlled by its members or policyholders, have consented to a petition.

402-C:21 Liquidation Orders.

I. ORDER TO LIQUIDATE. An order to liquidate the business of a domestic insurer shall appoint the commissioner and his successors in office liquidator and shall direct the liquidator forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer them under the orders of the court. The liquidator shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts and rights of action and all of the books and records of the insurer ordered liquidated, wherever located, as of the date of the filing of the petition for liquidation. He may recover and reduce the same to possession except that ancillary receivers in reciprocal states shall have, as to assets located in their respective states, the rights and powers which are prescribed in RSA 402-C:55, III for ancillary receivers appointed in this state as to assets located in this state. The filing or recording of the order with any register of deeds in this state imparts the same notice as a deed, bill of sale or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.

II. FIXING OF RIGHTS. Upon issuance of the order, the rights and liabilities of any such insurer and of its creditors, policyholders, shareholders, members and all other persons interested in its estate are fixed as of the date of filing of the petition for liquidation, except as provided in RSA 402-C:22 and 39.

III. ALIEN INSURER. An order to liquidate the business of an alien insurer domiciled in this state shall be in the same terms and have the same legal effect as an order to liquidate a domestic insurer, except that the assets and the business in the United States shall be the only assets and business included under the order.

IV. DECLARATION OF INSOLVENCY. At the time of petitioning for an order of liquidation, or at any time thereafter, the commissioner may petition the court to declare the insurer insolvent, and after such notice and hearing as it deems proper, the court may make the declaration.

V. Any order issued under this section shall require financial reports to the court by the liquidator. Financial reports shall include, at a minimum, the assets and liabilities of the insurer and all funds received or disbursed by the liquidator during the current period. Financial reports shall be filed within one year of the liquidation order and at least annually thereafter.

VI. (a) On or before January 6, 1992, or, if later, within 5 days after the initiation of an appeal of an order of liquidation, which order has not been stayed, the commissioner shall present for the court's approval a plan for the continued performance of the defendant company's policy claims obligations, including the duty to defend insureds under liability insurance policies, during the pendency of an appeal. Such plan shall provide for the continued performance and payment of policy claims obligations in the normal course of events, notwithstanding the grounds alleged in support of the order of liquidation including the ground of insolvency. If the defendant company's financial condition is, in the judgment of the commissioner, unable to support the full performance of all policy claims obligations during the appeal pendency period, the plan may prefer the claims of certain policyholders and claimants over creditors and interested parties as well as other policyholders and claimants, as the commissioner finds to be fair and equitable considering the relative circumstances of such policyholders and claimants. The court shall examine the plan submitted by the commissioner and if it finds the plan to be in the best interests of the parties, the court shall approve the plan. No action shall lie against the commissioner or any of his deputies, agents, clerks, assistants or attorneys by any party based on preference in an appeal pendency plan approved by the court.

(b) The appeal pendency plan shall not supersede or affect the obligations of any insurance guaranty association.

(c) Any such plans shall provide for equitable adjustments to be made by the liquidator to any distributions of assets to guaranty associations, in the event that the liquidator pays claims from assets of the estate, which would otherwise be the obligations of any particular guaranty association but for the appeal of the order of liquidation, such that all guaranty associations equally benefit on a pro rata basis from the assets of the estate. Further, in the event an order of liquidation is set aside upon any appeal, the company shall not be released from delinquency proceedings unless and until all funds advanced by any guaranty association, including reasonable administrative expenses in connection with the proceedings relating to obligations of the company, shall be repaid in full, together with interest at the judgment rate of interest or unless an arrangement for repayment thereof has been made with the consent of all applicable guaranty associations.

402-C:22 Continuance of Coverage.

I. All insurance policies issued by the insurer shall continue in force:

- (a) For a period of 30 days from the date of entry of the liquidation order;
- (b) Until the normal expiration of the policy coverage;
- (c) Until the insured has replaced the insurance coverage with equivalent insurance in another insurer; or
- (d) Until the liquidator has effected a transfer of the policy obligation pursuant to RSA 402-C:25, VIII; whichever time is less.

II. If the coverage continued under this section is replaced by insurance that is not equivalent, the coverage continued under this section shall be excess coverage over the replacement policy to the extent of the deficiency. Claims arising during the continuation of coverage shall be treated as if they arose immediately before the petition for liquidation. Coverage under this section shall not satisfy any legal obligation of the insured to carry insurance protection, whether the obligation is created by law or by contract.

402-C:23 Dissolution of Insurer.

The commissioner may petition for an order dissolving the corporate existence of a domestic insurer or the United States branch of an alien insurer domiciled in this state at the time he applies for a liquidation order. If the court issues a liquidation order, it also shall order dissolution if the commissioner has petitioned for it. The court shall order dissolution of the corporation upon petition by the commissioner at any time after a liquidation order has been granted. If the dissolution has not previously occurred, it shall be effected by operation of law upon the discharge of the liquidator.

402-C:24 Federal Receivership.

I. PETITION FOR FEDERAL RECEIVER. Whenever in the commissioner's opinion, liquidation of a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state would be facilitated by a federal receivership, and when any ground exists upon which the commissioner might petition the court for an order of rehabilitation or liquidation under RSA 402-C:15 or 20, or if an order of rehabilitation or liquidation has already been entered, the commissioner may request another commissioner or other willing resident of another state to petition any appropriate federal district court for the appointment of a federal receiver. The commissioner may intervene in any such action to support or oppose the petition, and may accept appointment as the receiver if he is so designated. So much of this chapter shall apply to the receivership as can be made applicable and is appropriate. Upon motion of the commissioner, the courts of this state shall relinquish all jurisdiction over the insurer for purposes of rehabilitation or liquidation.

II. COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS. If the commissioner is appointed receiver under this section, he shall comply with any requirements necessary to give him title to and control over the assets and affairs of the insurer.

402-C:25 Powers of Liquidator.

The liquidator shall report to the court monthly, or at other intervals specified by the court, on the progress of the liquidation in whatever detail the court orders. Subject to the court's control, he may:

I. Appoint a special deputy to act for him under this chapter, and determine his compensation. The special deputy shall have all powers of the liquidator granted by this section. The special deputy shall serve at the pleasure of the liquidator.

II. Appoint or engage employees and agents, legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, appraisers, consultants and other personnel he deems necessary to assist in the liquidation. RSA 98 shall not apply to such persons.

III. Fix the compensation of persons under paragraph II, subject to the control of the court.

IV. Defray all expenses of taking possession of, conserving, conducting, liquidating, disposing of or otherwise dealing with the business and property of the insurer. If the property of the insurer does not contain sufficient cash or liquid assets to defray the costs incurred, the liquidator may advance the costs so incurred out of any available appropriation. Any amounts so paid shall be deemed expense of administration and shall be repaid for the credit of the insurance department out of the first available moneys of the insurer.

V. Hold hearings, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, administer oaths, examine any person under oath and compel any person to subscribe to his testimony after it has been correctly reduced to writing, and in connection therewith require the production of any books, papers, records or other documents which he deems relevant to the inquiry.

VI. Collect all debts and moneys due and claims belonging to the insurer, wherever located, and for this purpose institute timely action in other jurisdictions, in order to forestall garnishment and attachment proceedings against such debts; do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve or protect its assets or property, including sell, compound, compromise or assign for purposes of collection, upon such terms and conditions as he deems best, any bad or doubtful debts; and pursue any creditor's remedies available to enforce his claims.

VII. Conduct public and private sales of the property of the insurer in a manner prescribed by the court.

VIII. Use assets of the estate to transfer policy obligations to a solvent assuming insurer, if the transfer can be arranged without prejudice to applicable priorities under RSA 402-C:44.

IX. Acquire, hypothecate, encumber, lease, improve, sell, transfer, abandon or otherwise dispose of or deal with any property of the insurer at its market value or upon such terms and conditions as are fair and reasonable, except that no transaction involving property the market value of which exceeds $10,000 shall be concluded without express permission of the court. He also may execute, acknowledge and deliver any deeds, assignments, releases and other instruments necessary or proper to effectuate any sale of property or other transaction in connection with the liquidation. In cases where real property sold by the liquidator is located other than in the county where the liquidation is pending, the liquidator shall cause to be filed with the register of deeds for the county in which the property is located a certified copy of the order appointing him.

X. Borrow money on the security of the insurer's assets or without security and execute and deliver all documents necessary to that transaction for the purpose of facilitating the liquidation.

XI. Enter into such contracts as are necessary to carry out the order to liquidate, and affirm or disavow any contracts to which the insurer is a party.

XII. Continue to prosecute and institute in the name of the insurer or in his own name any suits and other legal proceedings, in this state or elsewhere, and abandon the prosecution of claims he deems unprofitable to pursue further. If the insurer is dissolved under RSA 402-C:23, he may apply to any court in this state or elsewhere for leave to substitute himself for the insurer as plaintiff.

XIII. Prosecute any action which may exist in behalf of the creditors, members, policyholders or shareholders of the insurer against any officer of the insurer, or any other person.

XIV. Remove any records and property of the insurer to the offices of the commissioner or to such other place as is convenient for the purposes of efficient and orderly execution of the liquidation.

XV. Deposit in one or more banks in this state such sums as are required for meeting current administration expenses and dividend distributions.

XVI. File any necessary documents for record in the office of any register of deeds or record office in this state or elsewhere where property of the insurer is located.

XVII. Assert all legal and equitable defenses available to the insurer as against third persons. A waiver of any defense by the insurer after a petition for liquidation has been filed shall not bind the liquidator.

XVIII. Exercise and enforce all the rights, remedies and powers of any creditor, shareholder, policyholder or member, including any power to avoid any transfer or lien that may be given by law and that is not included within RSA 402-C:30-32.

XIX. Intervene in any proceeding wherever instituted that might lead to the appointment of a receiver or trustee, and act as the receiver or trustee whenever the appointment is offered.

XX. Enter into agreements with any receiver or commissioner of any other state relating to the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation or dissolution of an insurer doing business in both states.

XXI. Exercise all powers now held or hereafter conferred upon receivers by the laws of this state not inconsistent with this chapter.

XXII. The enumeration in this section of the powers and authority of the liquidator is not a limitation upon him, nor does it exclude his right to do such other acts not herein specifically enumerated or otherwise provided for as are necessary or expedient for the accomplishment of or in aid of the purpose of liquidation.

402-C:26 Notice to Creditors and Others.

I. NOTICE REQUIRED.

(a) GENERAL REQUIREMENTS. The liquidator shall give notice of the liquidation order as soon as possible by first class mail and either by telegram or telephone to the insurance commissioner of each jurisdiction in which the insurer is licensed to do business, by first class mail within this state and by airmail outside this state to all insurance agents having a duty under RSA 402-C:27, and by first class mail within this state and by airmail outside this state at the last known address to all persons known or reasonably expected to have claims against the insurer, including all policyholders. He also shall publish notice in a newspaper of general statewide circulation or in Merrimack county, the last publication to be not less than 3 months before the earliest deadline specified in the notice under paragraph III.

(b) SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS. Notice to agents shall inform them of their duties under RSA 402-C:27 and inform them what information they must communicate to insureds. Notice to policyholders shall include notice of impairment and termination of coverage under RSA 402-C:22. When it is applicable, notice to policyholders shall include 1) notice of withdrawal of the insurer from the defense of any case in which the insured is interested and 2) notice of the right to file a claim under RSA 402-C:40.

(c) REPORTS AND FURTHER NOTICE. Within 15 days of the date of entry of the order, the liquidator shall report to the court what notice has been given. The court may order such additional notice as it deems appropriate.

II. NOTICE RESPECTING CLAIMS FILING. Notice to potential claimants under paragraph I shall require claimants to file with the liquidator their claims together with proper proofs thereof under RSA 402-C:38 on or before a date the liquidator specifies in the notice, which shall be no less than 6 months nor more than one year after entry of the order, except that the liquidator need not require persons claiming cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities to file a claim. The liquidator may specify different dates for the filing of different kinds of claims.

III. NOTICE CONCLUSIVE. If notice is given in accordance with this section, the distribution of the assets of the insurer under this chapter shall be conclusive with respect to all claimants, whether or not they received notice.

402-C:27 Duties of Agents.

I. WRITTEN NOTICE. Every person who receives notice in the form prescribed in RSA 402-C:26 that an insurer which he represents as an independent agent is the subject of a liquidation order shall as soon as practicable give notice of the liquidation order. The notice shall be sent by first class mail to the last address contained in the agent's records to each policyholder or other person named in any policy issued through the agent by the company, if he has a record of the address of the policyholder or other person. A policy shall be deemed issued through an agent if the agent has a property interest in the expiration of the policy; or if the agent has had in his possession a copy of the declarations of the policy at any time during the life of the policy, except where the ownership of the expiration of the policy has been transferred to another. The written notice shall include the name and address of the insurer, the name and address of the agent, identification of the policy impaired and the nature of the impairment under RSA 402-C:22. Notice by a general agent satisfies the notice requirement for any agents under contract to him.

II. SANCTIONS. Any agent failing to give notice as required in paragraph I may be fined not more than $100 and may have his license suspended.

III. ORAL NOTICE. So far as practicable, every insurance agent subject to paragraph I shall give immediate oral notice by telephone or otherwise, of the liquidation order to the same persons to whom he is obligated to give written notice. The oral notice shall include substantially the same information as the written notice.

IV. UNEARNED PREMIUM CLAIMS. It shall be the duty of each agent, subject to the provisions of this section, to prepare and file on forms prescribed by the liquidator or the association the claims for unearned premiums on behalf of the policyholders of the insolvent insurer for policies issued through said agent. Agents who fail to file valid claims of policyholders as required by this section shall be personally liable to the respective policyholders to whom the unearned premiums are due and owing by the insolvent insurer, but in no event shall the agent be liable to any individual policyholder for an amount more than said policyholder's unearned premium including unearned commission less the $50 deductible provision established under RSA 404-B:5, IV. Upon receipt of the unearned premium claims from the liquidator or the association, the agent shall promptly pay to each policyholder his just and proportionate share of said refund and in addition shall return to each policyholder the unearned commission due on each cancelled policy.

402-C:28 Actions by and Against Liquidator.

I. TERMINATION OF ACTIONS AGAINST INSURER BY ORDER APPOINTING LIQUIDATOR. Upon issuance of any order appointing the commissioner liquidator of a domestic insurer or of an alien insurer domiciled in this state, all actions and all proceedings against the insurer whether in this state or elsewhere shall be abated and the liquidator shall not intervene in them, except as provided in this section. Whenever in the liquidator's judgment an action in this state has proceeded to a point where fairness or convenience would be served by its continuation to judgment, he may apply to the court for leave to defend or to be substituted for the insurer, and if the court gives him leave, the action shall not be abated. Whenever in the liquidator's judgment, protection of the estate of the insurer necessitates intervention in an action against the insurer that is pending outside this state, with approval of the court he may intervene in the action. The liquidator may defend any action in which he intervenes under this section at the expense of the estate of the insurer.

II. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS BY INSURER. The liquidator may, within 2 years subsequent to the entry of an order for liquidation or within such further time as applicable law permits, institute an action or proceeding on behalf of the estate of the insurer upon any cause of action against which the period of limitation fixed by applicable law has not expired at the time of the filing of the petition upon which such order is entered. Where, by any agreement, a period of limitation is fixed for instituting a suit or proceeding upon any claim or for filing any claim, proof of claim, proof of loss, demand, notice or the like, or where in any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, a period of limitation is fixed, either in the proceeding or by applicable law, for taking any action, filing any claim or pleading or doing any act, and where in any such case the period had not expired at the date of the filing of the petition, the liquidator may, for the benefit of the estate, take any such action or do any such act, required of or permitted to the insurer, within a period of 60 days subsequent to the entry of an order for liquidation, or within such further period as is permitted by the agreement, or in the proceeding or by applicable law, or within such further period as is shown to the satisfaction of the court not to be unfairly prejudicial to the other party.

III. STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS AGAINST INSURER. The time between the filing of a petition for liquidation against an insurer and the denial of the petition shall not be considered to be a part of the time within which any action may be commenced against the insurer. Any action against the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced for at least 60 days after the petition is denied.

402-C:29 Collection and List of Assets.

I. LIST OF ASSETS REQUIRED. As soon as practicable after the liquidation order, the liquidator shall prepare in duplicate a list of the insurer's assets. The list shall be amended or supplemented as the court requires. One copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court having jurisdiction over the liquidation proceedings and one copy shall be retained for the liquidator's files. All amendments and supplements shall be similarly filed.

II. LIQUIDATION OF ASSETS. The liquidator shall reduce the assets to a degree of liquidity that is consistent with the effective execution of the liquidation as rapidly and economically as he can.

III. ACCESS TO ASSETS.

(a) Within 120 days of a final determination of insolvency of a company by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state, the receiver shall make application to the court for approval of a proposal to disburse assets out of such company's marshalled assets, from time to time as such assets become available, to the New Hampshire Insurance Guaranty Association, the New Hampshire Life and Health Guaranty Association and to any similar organization in another state. The New Hampshire Insurance Guaranty Association, the New Hampshire Life and Health Guaranty Association and any similar organizations in other states shall hereafter be referred to collectively as the associations.

(b) Such proposals shall at least include provision for:

- (1) Reserving amounts for the payment of the expenses of administration and the claims falling within priorities established in RSA 402-C:44, I-V;
- (2) Disbursement of the assets marshalled to date and subsequent disbursements of assets as they become available;
- (3) Equitable allocation of disbursements to each of the associations entitled thereto; and
- (4) The securing by the receiver from each of the associations entitled to disbursements pursuant to this section of an agreement to return to the receiver such assets previously disbursed as may be required to pay claims as secured creditors and claims falling within the priorities established in RSA 402-C:44, I-VI in accordance with such priorities. No bonds shall be required of any such association.

(c) The receiver's proposal shall provide for disbursements to the associations in amounts at least equal to the payments made or to be made thereby for which such association could assert claims against the receiver and shall further provide that if the assets available for disbursement from time to time do not equal or exceed the amounts of such payments made or to be made by the associations then disbursements shall be in the amount of available assets.

(d) The receiver's proposal shall, with respect to an insolvent insurer writing life, health insurance or annuities, provide for disbursements of assets to the New Hampshire Life and Health Guaranty Association or to any other entity or organization reinsuring, assuming or guaranteeing policies or contracts of insurance under the provisions of RSA 404-D.

(e) Notice of such application shall be given to the associations in and to the commissioners of insurance of each of the states. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States certified mails, first class postage prepaid, at least 30 days prior to submission of such application to the court. Action on the application may be taken by the court provided the above required notice has been given and provided further that the receiver's proposal complies with subparagraphs (b)(1) and (b)(4).

402-C:30 Fraudulent Transfers Prior to Petition.

I. DEFINITION AND EFFECT. Every transfer made or suffered and every obligation incurred by an insurer within one year prior to the filing of a successful petition for rehabilitation or liquidation under this chapter is fraudulent as to then existing and future creditors if made or incurred without fair consideration, or with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud either existing or future creditors. A transfer made or an obligation incurred by an insurer ordered to be rehabilitated or liquidated under this chapter, which is fraudulent under this section, may be avoided by the receiver, except as to a person who in good faith is a purchaser, lienor or obligee for a present fair equivalent value; and except that any purchaser, lienor or obligee, who in good faith has given a consideration less than fair for such transfer, lien or obligation, may retain the property, lien or obligation as security for repayment. The court may, on due notice, order any such transfer or obligation to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, and in that event the receiver shall succeed to and may enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor or obligee.

II. PERFECTION OF TRANSFERS.

(a) PERSONAL PROPERTY. A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee under RSA 402-C:32, III.

(b) REAL PROPERTY. A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(c) EQUITABLE LIENS. A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(d) TRANSFER NOT PERFECTED PRIOR TO PETITION. Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

(e) ACTUAL CREDITORS UNNECESSARY. This paragraph applies whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained any liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

III. FRAUDULENT REINSURANCE TRANSACTIONS. Any transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer shall be deemed fraudulent and may be avoided by the receiver under paragraph I if:

(a) The transaction consists of the termination, adjustment or settlement of a reinsurance contract in which the reinsurer is released from any part of its duty to pay the originally specified share of losses that had occurred prior to the time of the transaction, unless the reinsurer gives a present fair equivalent value for the release; and

(b) Any part of the transaction took place within one year prior to the date of filing of the petition through which the receivership was commenced.

402-C:31 Fraudulent Transfers After Petition.

I. EFFECT OF PETITION: REAL PROPERTY. After a petition for rehabilitation or liquidation, a transfer of any of the real property of the insurer made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value or, if not made for a present fair equivalent value, then to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefor, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred. The recording of a copy of the petition for or order of rehabilitation or liquidation with the register of deeds in the county where any real property in question is located is constructive notice of the commencement of a proceeding in rehabilitation or liquidation. The exercise by a court of the United States or any state of jurisdiction to authorize or effect a judicial sale of real property of the insurer within any county in any state shall not be impaired by the pendency of such a proceeding unless the copy is recorded in the county prior to the consummation of the judicial sale.

II. EFFECT OF PETITION: PERSONAL PROPERTY. After a petition for rehabilitation or liquidation and before either the receiver takes possession of the property of the insurer or an order of rehabilitation or liquidation is granted:

- (a) A transfer of any of the property of the insurer, other than real property, made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value or, if not made for a present fair equivalent value, then to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefor, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred.
- (b) A person indebted to the insurer or holding property of the insurer may, if acting in good faith, pay the indebtedness or deliver the property or any part thereof to the insurer or upon his order, with the same effect as if the petition were not pending.
- (c) A person having actual knowledge of the pending rehabilitation or liquidation shall be deemed not to act in good faith unless he has reasonable cause to believe that the petition is not well founded.
- (d) A person asserting the validity of a transfer under this section shall have the burden of proof. Except as elsewhere provided in this section, no transfer by or in behalf of the insurer after the date of the petition for liquidation by any person other than the liquidator shall be valid against the liquidator.

III. NEGOTIABILITY. Nothing in this chapter shall impair the negotiability of currency or negotiable instruments.

402-C:32 Voidable Preferences and Liens.

I. PREFERENCES.

(a) PREFERENCE DEFINED. A preference is a transfer of any of the property of an insurer to or for the benefit of a creditor, for or on account of an antecedent debt, made or suffered by the insurer within one year before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under this chapter the effect of which transfer may be to enable the creditor to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than another creditor of the same class would receive. If a liquidation order is entered while the insurer is already subject to a rehabilitation order, transfers otherwise qualifying shall be deemed preferences if made or suffered within one year before the filing of the successful petition for rehabilitation or within 2 years before the filing of the successful petition for liquidation, whichever time is shorter.

(b) INVALIDATION OF PREFERENCES. Any preference may be avoided by the liquidator, if 1) the insurer was insolvent at the time of the transfer, or 2) the transfer was made within 4 months before the filing of the petition, or 3) the creditor receiving it or to be benefited thereby or his agent acting with reference thereto had reasonable cause to believe at the time when the transfer was made that the insurer was insolvent or was about to become insolvent, or 4) the creditor receiving it was an officer, employee, attorney or other person who was in fact in a position of comparable influence in the insurer to an officer whether or not he held such position, or any shareholder holding directly or indirectly more than 5 percent of any class of any equity security issued by the insurer, or any other person with whom the insurer did not deal at arm's length. Where the preference is voidable, the liquidator may recover the property or if it has been converted, its value from any person who has received or converted the property, except a bona fide purchaser from or lienor of the debtor's transferee for a present fair equivalent value. Where the bona fide purchaser or lienor has given less than fair equivalent value, he shall have a lien upon the property to the extent of the consideration actually given by him. Where a preference by way of lien or security title is voidable, the court may on due notice order the lien or title to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, in which event the lien or title shall pass to the liquidator.

II. PERFECTION OF TRANSFERS.

(a) PERSONAL PROPERTY. A transfer of property other than real property is deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee.

(b) REAL PROPERTY. A transfer of real property is deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(c) EQUITABLE LIENS. A transfer which creates an equitable lien is not deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(d) TRANSFERS NOT PERFECTED PRIOR TO PETITION. A transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

(e) ACTUAL CREDITORS UNNECESSARY. This paragraph applies whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

III. LIENS BY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE PROCEEDINGS.

(a) DEFINITION. A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings upon a simple contract is one arising in the ordinary course of such proceedings upon the entry or docketing of a judgment or decree, or upon attachment, garnishment, execution or like process, whether before, upon or after judgment or decree and whether before or upon levy. It does not include liens which under applicable law are given a special priority over other liens which are prior in time.

(b) WHEN LIENS ARE SUPERIOR. A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings could become superior to the rights of a transferee, or a purchaser could obtain rights superior to the rights of a transferee within the meaning of paragraph II, if such consequences would follow only from the lien or purchase itself, or from the lien or purchase followed by any step wholly within the control of the respective lienholder or purchaser, with or without the aid of ministerial action by public officials. Such a lien could not, however, become superior and such a purchase could not create superior rights for the purpose of paragraph II through any acts subsequent to the obtaining of such a lien or subsequent to such a purchase which require the agreement or concurrence of any third party or which require any further judicial action, or ruling.

IV. TWENTY-ONE DAY RULE. A transfer of property for or on account of a new and contemporaneous consideration which is deemed under paragraph II to be made or suffered after the transfer because of delay in perfecting it does not thereby become a transfer for or on account of an antecedent debt if any acts required by the applicable law to be performed in order to perfect the transfer as against liens or bona fide purchasers' rights are performed within 21 days or any period expressly allowed by the law, whichever is less. A transfer to secure a future loan, if such a loan is actually made, or a transfer which becomes security for a future loan shall have the same effect as a transfer for or on account of a new and contemporaneous consideration.

V. INDEMNIFYING TRANSFERS ALSO VOIDABLE. If any lien deemed voidable under subparagraph (b) of paragraph I has been dissolved by the furnishing of a bond or other obligation, the surety on which has been indemnified directly or indirectly by the transfer of or the creation of a lien upon any property of an insurer before the filing of a petition under this chapter which results in a liquidation order, the indemnifying transfer or lien shall also be deemed voidable.

VI. AVOIDANCE OF LIEN. The property affected by any lien deemed voidable under subparagraph (b) of paragraph I and paragraph V is discharged from the lien, and that property and any of the indemnifying property transferred to or for the benefit of a surety shall pass to the liquidator, except that the court may on due notice order the lien to be preserved by the benefit of the estate and the court may direct that a conveyance be executed which is adequate to evidence the title of the liquidator.

VII. HEARINGS TO DETERMINE RIGHTS. The court shall have summary jurisdiction of any proceeding by the liquidator to hear and determine the rights of any parties under this section. Reasonable notice of any hearing in the proceeding shall be given to all parties in interest, including the obligee of a releasing bond or other like obligation. Where an order is entered for the recovery of indemnifying property in kind or for the avoidance of an indemnifying lien, the court, upon application of any party in interest, shall in the same proceeding ascertain the value of the property or lien, and if the value is less than the amount for which the property is indemnity or than the amount of the lien, the transferee or lienholder may elect to retain the property or lien upon payment of its value, as ascertained by the court, to the liquidator within such reasonable times as the court fixes.

VIII. SURETY'S LIABILITY DISCHARGED. The liability of a surety under a releasing bond or other like obligation shall be discharged to the extent of the value of the indemnifying property recovered or the indemnifying lien nullified and avoided or, where the property is retained under paragraph VII to the extent of the amount paid to the liquidator.

IX. SETOFF OF NEW ADVANCES. If a creditor has been preferred and afterward in good faith gives the insurer further credit without security of any kind, for property which becomes a part of the insurer's estate, the amount of the new credit remaining unpaid at the time of the petition may be set off against the preference which would otherwise be recoverable from him.

X. RE-EXAMINATION OF ATTORNEY'S FEES. If an insurer, directly or indirectly, within 4 months before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under this chapter or at any time in contemplation of a proceeding to liquidate it, pays money or transfers property to an attorney at law for services rendered or to be rendered, the transaction may be examined by the court on its own motion or shall be examined by the court on petition of the liquidator and shall be held valid only to the extent of a reasonable amount to be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the liquidator for the benefit of the estate.

XI. PERSONAL LIABILITY.

(a) Every officer, manager, employee, shareholder, member, subscriber, attorney or any other person acting on behalf of the insurer who knowingly participates in giving any preference when he has reasonable cause to believe the insurer to be or about to become insolvent at the time of the preference shall be personally liable to the liquidator for the amount of the preference. It is permissible to infer that there is reasonable cause to so believe if the transfer was made within 4 months before the date of the filing of the successful petition for liquidation.

(b) Every person receiving any property from the insurer of the benefit thereof as a preference voidable under subparagraph (b) of paragraph I shall be personally liable therefor and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.

(c) Nothing in this paragraph shall prejudice any other claim by the liquidator against any person.

402-C:33 Claims of Holders of Void or Voidable Rights.

I. DISALLOWANCE FOR FAILURE TO SURRENDER PROPERTY. No claims of a creditor who has received or acquired a preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment or encumbrance, voidable under this chapter, shall be allowed unless he surrenders the preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment or encumbrance. If the avoidance is effected by a proceeding in which a final judgment has been entered, the claim shall not be allowed unless the money is paid or the property is delivered to the liquidator within 30 days from the date of the entering of the final judgment, except that the court having jurisdiction over the liquidation may allow further time if there is an appeal or other continuation of the proceeding.

II. TIME FOR FILING. A claim allowable under paragraph I by reason of the avoidance, whether voluntary or involuntary, of a preference lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment or encumbrance may be filed as an excused late filing under RSA 402-C:37 if filed within 30 days from the date of the avoidance or within the further time allowed by the court under paragraph I.

402-C:34 Setoffs.

I. SETOFFS ALLOWED IN GENERAL. Mutual debts or mutual credits between the insurer and another person in connection with any action or proceeding under this chapter shall be set off and the balance only shall be allowed or paid, except as provided in paragraph II.

II. EXCEPTIONS. No setoff shall be allowed in favor of any person where:

- (a) The obligation of the insurer to the person would not at the date of the filing of a petition for liquidation entitle him to share as a claimant in the assets of the insurer;
- (b) The obligation of the insurer to the person was purchased by or transferred to the person with a view to its being used as a setoff;
- (c) The obligation of the person is to pay an assessment levied against the members or subscribers of the insurer, or is to pay a balance upon a subscription to the capital stock of the insurer, or is in any other way in the nature of a capital contribution; or
- (d) [Repealed.]

402-C:35 Assessments.

I. REPORT TO COURT. As soon as practicable but not more than 2 years from the date of an order of liquidation under RSA 402-C:21 of an insurer issuing assessable policies, the liquidator shall make a report to the court setting forth:

- (a) The reasonable value of the assets of the insurer;
- (b) The insurer's probable total liabilities; and
- (c) The probable aggregate amount of the assessment necessary to pay all claims of creditors and expenses in full, including expenses of administration and costs of collecting the assessment.

II. LEVY OF ASSESSMENT.

- (a) Upon the basis of the report provided in paragraph I, including any supplements and amendments thereto, the court may levy ex parte one or more assessments against all members of the insurer who are subject to assessment.
- (b) Subject to any applicable legal limits on assessability, the aggregate assessment shall be for the amount that the sum of the probable liabilities, the expenses of administration and the estimated cost of collection of the assessment exceeds the value of existing assets, with due regard being given to assessments that cannot be collected economically.

III. ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. After levy of assessment under paragraph II, the court shall issue an order directing each member who has not paid the assessment pursuant to the order to show cause why the liquidator shall not have a judgment therefor. If a member of the insurer also appears to be indebted to the insurer apart from the assessment, the court, upon application of the liquidator, may also direct the member to show cause why he should not pay the other indebtedness. Liability for such indebtedness shall be determined in the same manner and at the same time as the liability to pay the assessment.

IV. NOTICE. The liquidator shall give notice of the order to show cause by publication if so directed by the court and by first class mail to each member liable thereunder mailed at least 20 days before the return day of the order to show cause to his last known address as it appears on the records of the insurer.

V. ORDERS AND HEARINGS.

(a) If a member does not appear and serve duly verified objections upon the liquidator upon the return day of the order to show cause under paragraph III, the court shall make an order adjudging the member liable for the amount of the assessment against him and other indebtedness, pursuant to paragraph III, together with costs, and the liquidator shall have a judgment against the member therefor.

(b) If on such return day, the member appears and serves duly verified objections upon the liquidator, the court may hear and determine the matter or may appoint a referee to hear it and make such order as the facts warrant. Any order made by a referee under this paragraph shall have the same force and effect as if it were a judgment of the court, subject to review by the court upon application within 30 days.

VI. COLLECTION. The liquidator may enforce any order or collect any judgment under paragraph V by any lawful means.

402-C:36 Liability of Insurer.

The amount recoverable by the liquidator from a reinsurer shall not be reduced as a result of delinquency proceedings regardless of whether the reinsurance contract provides, in substance, that in the event of the insolvency of the ceding insurer, the reinsurance shall be payable by the assuming insurer on the basis of the claims allowed against the ceding insurer in the insolvency proceedings, under contract or contracts reinsured without diminution because of the insolvency of the ceding insurer. Such payments shall be made directly to the ceding insurer or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver except:

I. Where the contract specifically provides another payee of such reinsurance in the event of the insolvency of the ceding insurer; or

II. Where the assuming insurer with the consent of the direct insured or insured has assumed such policy obligations of the ceding insurer as direct obligations of the assuming insurer to the payees under such policies and in substitution for the obligations of the ceding insurer to such payees.

402-C:37 Filing of Claims.

I. DEADLINE FOR FILING. Proof of all claims must be filed with the liquidator in the form required by RSA 402-C:38 on or before the last day for filing specified in the notice required under RSA 402-C:26, except that proof of preferred ownership claims and proprietary claims under RSA 402-C:44 need not be filed at all, and proof of claims for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities need not be filed unless the liquidator expressly so requires.

II. EXCUSED LATE FILINGS. For a good cause shown, the liquidator shall recommend and the court shall permit a claimant making a late filing to share in dividends, whether past or future, as if he were not late, to the extent that any such payment will not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation. Good cause includes but is not limited to the following:

- (a) That existence of a claim was not known to the claimant and that he filed within 30 days after he learned of it;
- (b) That a claim for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance or annuities which was not required to be filed was omitted from the liquidator's recommendations to the court under RSA 402-C:45, and that it was filed within 30 days after the claimant learned of the omission;
- (c) That a transfer to creditor was avoided under RSA 402-C:30-32 or was voluntarily surrendered under RSA 402-C:33, and that the filing satisfies the conditions of RSA 402-C:33;
- (d) That valuation under RSA 402-C:43 of security held by a secured creditor shows a deficiency, which is filed within 30 days after the valuation; and
- (e) That a claim was contingent and became absolute, and was filed within 30 days after it became absolute.

III. UNEXCUSED LATE FILINGS. The liquidator may consider any claim filed late which is not covered by paragraph II, and permit it to receive dividends, other than the first dividend, which are subsequently declared on any claims of the same or lower priority if the payment does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation. The late-filing claimant shall receive, at each distribution, the same percentage of the amount allowed on his claim as is then being paid to other claimants of the same priority plus the same percentage of the amount allowed on his claim as is then being paid to claimants of any lower priority. This shall continue until his claim has been paid in full.

402-C:38 Proof of Claim.

I. CONTENTS OF PROOF OF CLAIM.

- (a) Proof of claim shall consist of a verified statement that includes all of the following that are applicable:
  - 1. The particulars of the claim, including the consideration given for it.
  - 2. The identity and amount of the security on the claim.
  - 3. The payments made on the debt, if any.
  - 4. That the sum claimed is justly owing and that there is no setoff, counterclaim or defense to the claim.
  - 5. Any right of priority of payment or other specific right asserted by the claimant.
  - 6. A copy of any written instrument which is the foundation of the claim.
  - 7. In the case of any third party claim based on a liability policy issued by the insurer, a conditional release of the insured pursuant to RSA 402-C:40, I.
  - 8. The name and address of the claimant and the attorney who represents him, if any.
- (b) No claim need be considered or allowed if it does not contain all the information under subparagraph (a) which may be applicable. The liquidator may require that a prescribed form be used and may require that other information and documents be included.

II. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION. At any time the liquidator may request the claimant to present information or evidence supplementary to that required under paragraph I, and may take testimony under oath, require production of affidavits or depositions or otherwise obtain additional information or evidence.

III. CONCLUSIVENESS OF JUDGMENTS. No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered after the filing of a successful petition for liquidation and no judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered at any time by default or by collusion need be considered as evidence of liability or of quantum of damages. No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered within 4 months before the filing of the petition need be considered as evidence of liability or of the quantum of damages.

402-C:39 Special Claims.

I. CLAIMS CONTINGENT ON JUDGMENTS. The claim of a third party which is contingent only on his first obtaining a judgment against the insured shall be considered and allowed as if there were no such contingency.

II. CLAIMS UNDER TERMINATED POLICIES. Any claim that would have become absolute if there had been no termination of coverage under RSA 402-C:22, and which was not covered by insurance acquired to replace the terminated coverage, shall be allowed as if the coverage had remained in effect, unless at least 10 days before the insured event occurred either the claimant had actual notice of the termination or notice was mailed to the claimant as prescribed by RSA 402-C:26 or RSA 402-C:27, I. If allowed the claim shall share in distributions under RSA 402-C:44, II.

III. OTHER CONTINGENT CLAIMS. A claim may be allowed even if contingent, if it is filed in accordance with RSA 402-C:37, II. It may be allowed and may participate in all dividends declared after it is filed, to the extent that it does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation.

IV. IMMATURE CLAIMS. Claims that are due except for the passage of time shall be treated as absolute claims are treated, except that where justice requires the court may order them discounted at the legal rate of interest.

402-C:40 Special Provisions for Third Party Claims.

I. THIRD PARTY'S CLAIM. Whenever any third party asserts a cause of action against an insured of an insurer in liquidation, the third party may file a claim with the liquidator. The filing of the claim shall release the insured's liability to the third party on that cause of action in the amount of the applicable policy limit, but the liquidator shall also insert in any form used for the filing of third party claims appropriate language to constitute such a release. The release shall be void if the insurance coverage is avoided by the liquidator.

II. INSURED'S CLAIM. Whether or not the third party files a claim, the insured may file a claim on his own behalf in the liquidation. If the insured fails to file a claim by the date for filing claims specified in the order of liquidation or within 60 days after mailing of the notice required by subparagraph (b) of RSA 402-C:26, I, whichever is later, he is an unexcused late filer.

III. PROCEDURE FOR INSURED'S CLAIM. The liquidator shall make his recommendations to the court under RSA 402-C:45 for the allowance of an insured's claim under paragraph II after consideration of the probable outcome of any pending action against the insured on which the claim is based, the probable damages recoverable in the action and the probable costs and expenses of defense. After allowance by the court, the liquidator shall withhold any dividends payable on the claim, pending the outcome of litigation and negotiation with the insured. Whenever it seems appropriate, he shall reconsider the claim on the basis of additional information and amend his recommendations to the court. The insured shall be afforded the same notice and opportunity to be heard on all changes in the recommendation as in its initial determination. The court may amend its allowance as it thinks appropriate. As claims against the insured are settled or barred, the insured shall be paid from the amount withheld the same percentage dividend as was paid on other claims of like priority, based on the lesser of a) the amount actually recovered from the insured by action or paid by agreement plus the reasonable costs and expenses of defense, or b) the amount allowed on the claims by the court. After all claims are settled or barred any sum remaining from the amount withheld shall revert to the undistributed assets of the insurer. Delay in final payment under this section shall not be a reason for unreasonable delay of final distribution and discharge of the liquidator.

IV. MULTIPLE CLAIMS. If several claims founded upon one policy are filed, whether by third parties or as claims by the insured under this section, and the aggregate allowed amount of the claims to which the same limit of liability in the policy is applicable exceeds that limit, each claim as allowed shall be reduced in the same proportion so that the total equals the policy limit. Claims by the insured shall be evaluated as in paragraph III. If any insured's claim is subsequently reduced under paragraph III, the amount thus freed shall be apportioned ratably among the claims which have been reduced under this section.

402-C:41 Disputed Claims.

I. NOTICE OF REJECTION AND REQUEST FOR HEARING. When a claim is denied in whole or in part by the liquidator, written notice of the determination shall be given to the claimant and his attorney by first class mail at the address shown in the proof of claim. Within 60 days from the mailing of the notice, the claimant may file his objections with the court. If no such filing is made, the claimant may not further object to the determination.

II. NOTICE OF HEARING. Whenever objections are filed with the court, the liquidator shall ask the court for a hearing as soon as practicable and give notice of the hearing by first class mail to the claimant or his attorney and to any other persons directly affected, not less than 10 nor more than 20 days before the date of the hearing. The matter may be heard by the court or by a court-appointed referee.

402-C:42 Claims of Surety.

Whenever a creditor whose claim against an insurer is secured in whole or in part by the undertaking of another person fails to prove and file that claim, the other person may do so in the creditor's name, and shall be subrogated to the rights of the creditor, whether the claim has been filed by the creditor or by the other person in the creditor's name, to the extent that he discharges the undertaking. In the absence of an agreement with the creditor to the contrary, the other person shall not be entitled to any dividend until the amount paid to the creditor on the undertaking plus the dividends paid on the claim from the insurer's estate to creditor equals the amount of the entire claim of the creditor. Any excess received by the creditor shall be held by him in trust for such other person.

402-C:43 Secured Creditors' Claims.

I. The value of any security held by a secured creditor shall be determined in one of the following ways, as the court directs:

(a) By converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which the security was delivered to such creditor;

(b) By agreement, arbitration, compromise or litigation between the creditor and the liquidator.

II. The determination shall be under the supervision and control of the court. The amount so determined shall be credited upon the secured claim, and any deficiency shall be treated as an unsecured claim. If the claimant surrenders his security to the liquidator, the entire claim shall be allowed as if unsecured.

402-C:44 Order of Distribution.

The order of distribution of claims from the insurer's estate shall be as stated in this section. The first $50 of the amount allowed on each claim in the classes under paragraphs II, V, and VI except claims of the guaranty associations as defined in RSA 404-B, 404-H, 404-D, and 408-B shall be deducted from the claim. Claims may not be cumulated by assignment to avoid application of the $50 deductible provision. Subject to the $50 deductible provision, every claim in each class shall be paid in full or adequate funds retained for the payment before the members of the next class receive any payment. No subclasses shall be established within any class.

I. ADMINISTRATION COSTS. The costs and expenses of administration, including but not limited to the following: the actual and necessary costs of preserving or recovering the assets of the insurer; compensation for all services rendered in the liquidation; any necessary filing fees; the fees and mileage payable to witnesses; and reasonable attorney's fees.

II. POLICY RELATED CLAIMS. All claims by policyholders, including claims for unearned premiums in excess of $50, beneficiaries, and insureds arising from and within the coverage of and not in excess of the applicable limits of insurance policies and insurance contracts issued by the company, and liability claims against insureds which claims are within the coverage of and not in excess of the applicable limits of insurance policies and insurance contracts issued by the company and claims of the New Hampshire Insurance Guaranty Association, the New Hampshire Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association and any similar organization in another state. All claims under life insurance and annuity policies, whether for death proceeds, annuity proceeds or investment values, shall be treated as loss claims. That portion of any loss for which indemnification is provided by other benefits or advantages recovered or recoverable by the claimant shall not be included in this class, other than benefits or advantages recovered or recoverable in discharge of familial obligations of support or by way of succession at death or as proceeds of life insurance, or as gratuities. No payment made by an employer to an employee shall be treated as a gratuity.

III. CLAIMS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

IV. WAGES.

(a) Debts due to employees for services performed, not to exceed $1,000 to each employee which have been earned within one year before the filing of the petition for liquidation. Officers shall not be entitled to the benefit of this priority.

(b) Such priority shall be in lieu of any other similar priority authorized by law as to wages or compensation of employees.

V. RESIDUAL CLASSIFICATION. All other claims including claims of any state or local government, not falling within other classes under this section. Claims, including those of any non-federal governmental body, for a penalty or forfeiture, shall be allowed in this class only to the extent of the pecuniary loss sustained from the act, transaction or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose with reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby. The remainder of such claims shall be postponed to the class of claims under paragraph VIII.

VI. JUDGMENTS. Claims based solely on judgments. If a claimant files a claim and bases it both on the judgment and on the underlying facts, the claim shall be considered by the liquidator who shall give the judgment such weight as he deems appropriate. The claim as allowed shall receive the priority it would receive in the absence of the judgment. If the judgment is larger than the allowance on the underlying claim, the remaining portion of the judgment shall be treated as if it were a claim based solely on a judgment.

VII. INTEREST ON CLAIMS ALREADY PAID. Interest at the legal rate compounded annually on all claims in the classes under paragraphs I through VI from the date of the petition for liquidation or the date on which the claim becomes due, whichever is later, until the date on which the dividend is declared. The liquidator, with the approval of the court, may make reasonable classifications of claims for purposes of computing interest, may make approximate computations and may ignore certain classifications and time periods as de minimis.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS SUBORDINATED CLAIMS. The remaining claims or portions of claims not already paid, with interest, as in paragraph VII:

- (a) Claims under RSA 402-C:39, II;
- (b) Claims subordinated by RSA 402-C:61;
- (c) Claims filed late;
- (d) Portions of claims subordinated under paragraph V;

(e) Claims or portions of claims payment of which is provided by other benefits or advantages recovered or recoverable by the claimant.

IX. PREFERRED OWNERSHIP CLAIMS. Surplus or contribution notes, or similar obligations, and premium refunds on assessable policies. Interest at the legal rate shall be added to each claim, as in paragraphs VII and VIII.

X. PROPRIETARY CLAIMS. The claims of shareholders or other owners.

402-C:45 Liquidator's Recommendations to the Court.

I. RECOMMENDED CLAIMS. The liquidator shall review all claims duly filed in the liquidation and shall make such further investigation as he deems necessary. He may compound, compromise or in any other manner negotiate the amount for which claims will be recommended to the court. Unresolved disputes shall be determined under RSA 402-C:41. As often as practicable, he shall present to the court reports of claims against the insurer with his recommendations. The reports shall include the name and address of each claimant, the particulars of the claim and the amount of the claim finally recommended, if any. As soon as reasonably possible after the last day for filing claims, he shall present a list of all claims not already reported. If the insurer has issued annuities or life insurance policies, the liquidator shall report the persons to whom, according to the records of the insurer, amounts are owed as cash surrender values or other investment values and the amounts owed. If the insurer has issued policies on the advance premium plan, the liquidator shall report the persons to whom, according to the records of the insurer, unearned premiums are owed and the amounts owed.

II. ALLOWANCE OF CLAIMS. The court may approve, disapprove or modify any report on claims by the liquidator, except that the liquidator's agreements with other parties shall be final and binding on the court on claims settled for $500 or less. No claim under a policy of insurance shall be allowed for an amount in excess of the applicable policy limits.

402-C:46 Distribution of Assets.

I. PAYMENTS TO CREDITORS. Under the direction of the court, the liquidator shall pay dividends in a manner that will assure the proper recognition of priorities and a reasonable balance between the expeditious completion of the liquidation and the protection of unliquidated and undetermined claims, including third party claims. Distribution of assets in kind may be made at valuations set by agreement between the liquidator and the creditor and approved by the court.

II. EXCESS ASSETS.

(a) Upon liquidation of a domestic mutual insurance company, any assets held in excess of its liabilities and the amounts which may be paid to its members as provided under subparagraph (b) shall be paid into the state treasury for the credit of the insurance department.

(b) The maximum amount payable upon liquidation to any member for and on account of his membership in a domestic mutual insurance company, in addition to the insurance benefits promised in the policy, shall be the total of all premium payments made by the member with interest at the legal rate compounded annually.

402-C:47 Unclaimed and Withheld Funds.

I. UNCLAIMED FUNDS. All unclaimed funds subject to distribution remaining in the liquidator's hands when he is ready to apply to the court for discharge, including the amount distributable to any creditor, shareholder, member or other person who is unknown or cannot be found or who is under disability with no person legally competent to receive his distributive share, shall be deposited with the state treasurer, and shall be paid over without interest except in accordance with RSA 402-C:44 to the person entitled thereto or his legal representative upon proof satisfactory to the state treasurer of his right thereto. Any amount on deposit not claimed within 6 years from the discharge of the liquidator is deemed abandoned and shall become the property of the state.

II. WITHHELD FUNDS. All funds withheld under RSA 402-C:40 and not distributed shall upon discharge of the liquidator be deposited with the state treasurer and paid by him in accordance with RSA 402-C:40. Any sums remaining which under RSA 402-C:40 would revert to the undistributed assets of the insurer shall be transferred to the state treasurer and become the property of the state under paragraph I, unless the commissioner petitions the court to reopen the liquidation under RSA 402-C:49.

402-C:48 Termination of Proceedings.

I. LIQUIDATOR'S APPLICATION. When all assets justifying the expense of collection and distribution have been collected and distributed under this chapter, the liquidator shall apply to the court for discharge. The court may grant the discharge and make any other orders deemed appropriate, including an order to transfer to the state treasury for the credit of the insurance department any remaining funds that are uneconomic to distribute.

II. APPLICATION BY OTHERS. Any other person may apply to the court at any time for an order under paragraph I. If the application is denied, the applicant shall pay the costs and expenses of the liquidator in resisting the application, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

402-C:49 Reopening Liquidation.

After the liquidation proceeding has been terminated and the liquidator discharged, the commissioner or other interested party may at any time petition the court to reopen the proceedings for good cause, including the discovery of additional assets. If the court is satisfied that there is justification for reopening, it shall so order.

402-C:50 Disposition of Records During and After Termination of Liquidation.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that the records of any insurer in process of liquidation or completely liquidated are no longer useful, he or she may recommend to the court what records should be retained for future reference and what should be disposed of. The court shall enter an order thereon. Until further order of the court, the commissioner shall keep all records the court orders preserved and shall destroy the remainder whether or not the records have been photographed or otherwise reproduced.

402-C:51 External Audit of Receiver's Books.

The court in which the proceeding is pending may, as it deems desirable, cause audits to be made of the books of the commissioner relating to any receivership established under this chapter, and a report of each audit shall be filed with the commissioner and with the court. The books, records and other documents of the receivership shall be made available to the auditor at any time without notice. The expense of each audit shall be considered a cost of administration of the receivership.

Interstate Relations (Refs & Annos)

402-C:52 Conservation of Property of Foreign or Alien Insurers Found in This State.

I. GROUNDS FOR PETITION. If a domiciliary liquidator has not been appointed, the commissioner may apply to the superior court for Merrimack county by verified petition for an order directing him to conserve the property of an alien insurer not domiciled in this state or a foreign insurer on any one or more of the following grounds:

- (a) Any of the grounds in RSA 402-C:15;
- (b) Any of the grounds in RSA 402-C:20;
- (c) That any of its property has been sequestered by official action in its domiciliary state, or in any other state;
- (d) That enough of its property has been sequestered in a foreign country to give reasonable cause to fear that the insurer is or may become insolvent;
- (e) That 1) its certificate of authority to do business in this state has been revoked or that none was ever issued, and 2) there are residents of this state with outstanding claims or outstanding policies.

II. TERMS OF ORDER. The court may issue the order in whatever terms it deems appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with any register of deeds in this state imparts the same notice as a deed, bill of sale or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.
