TO THE COURT:

CLAIMANT'S RESPONSE TO THE LIQUIDATOR'S OBJECTION TO CLAIMANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL

The Restated And Revised Orders Establishing Procedures Regarding Claims Filed With The Home Insurance Company In Liquidation, Section 14(b), states in relevant that "... a written submission stating the amount Claimant asserts is due, the methods of calculation of the amounts owed and the allocation methodology (if applicable), along with any other evidentiary material that Claimant contends support the amount claimed due. These document submissions will be considered 'mandatory disclosures.'"

It is practically impossible for Claimant to file the Mandatory Disclosures statement, without the propounded orders and documents, and responses to the interrogatories. Most important of all is a copy of the cancelled settlement check and its covering letter that the Liquidator stated in the Notice of Determination that "Home paid $250,000 into the trust account of your then attorney." Claimant does not have a copy of the cancelled settlement check, issued by the Home Insurance Company. The Liquidator has it, together with the covering letter. Every Mandatory Disclosure statement that is filed in this liquidation proceeding, in compliance with the aforementioned Merrimack County Superior Court's Order, is accompanied with evidences. This claim will not and should not be an exception.

Finally, the aforementioned Merrimack County Superior Court's Order did not grant the Liquidator, the discretion to determine the evidence a Claimant will or will not use to substantiate his or her claims in this insurance liquidation proceeding before the Court Appointed Referee in the Merrimack County Superior Court.

WHEREFORE, Claimant respectfully prays that the Motion to Compel should be granted.

Dated this 17th day of April, in the year 2009.

Respectfully Submitted By:
