REFEREE'S INTERIM ORDER ON METEX' MOTION TO INTERVENE AND PARTICIPATE IN DISPUTE REGARDING KENTILE

The Referee held a telephonic argument on Metex' Motion to Intervene and Participate in this disputed claim on September 10, 2013. The Referee has taken the matter under advisement.

In its objection to Metex' motion, CIC has raised concerns about producing unredacted copies of the briefs in this matter as well as discovery materials. Specifically, CIC is concerned about the potential distribution of those materials to persons not counsel in this disputed claim as well as use of those materials in other matters now pending between Metex and CIC. Both CIC's and Metex' counsel have proposed different resolutions regarding how to treat the documents should Metex' Motion to Intervene be granted.

The Referee orders the parties to meet and confer telephonically regarding an agreement about access to and review and distribution of pleadings and discovery materials in this disputed claim should Metex be allowed to intervene and participate. The parties are to file a joint report after their conference and within the next 30 days.

So ordered.
